Helen,

Happy New Year to you as well. As we stated in our December 21, 2017 responses and objections to your discovery requests, our search and review of additional records is ongoing, and we anticipate making a supplemental production of any additional records that we identify within four weeks. In addition, as we also stated in our responses and discussed at our meet and confer, we are using known BLMIS bank account numbers to run searches in our Third Party Documents, and are reviewing that population to ensure that we identify and produce the specific types of records that you seek.

As soon as these steps are completed, we will produce any additional responsive records that we identify.

Thanks,
Max

Happy new year to both of you. It is now a month and a half since you promised me that you would search the BLMIS data base for third party trading records and, to date, I have not received a single document as a result of that search. Can you please explain to me what steps you have taken to fulfill your representation to me and when I can expect to receive the documents you have located? Thanks.

Helen,

Thanks again for coming in yesterday--I think it was a productive meeting.

After consulting internally, we have identified a list that we created of BLMIS account numbers with various banks. We can apply those search terms across our third party records to get a preliminary idea of what kind of universe of documents that would yield. That way, you don't have to go digging up those numbers yourself.

We will circle back with our results. In the meantime, let me know if you have any questions or would otherwise like to discuss.

Thanks,
Max
